Re: 6th Annual Arizona Zoowalk for Autism Research September 25, 2010

Dear Friend,

I am writing to invite you to support the 6th Annual Arizona Zoowalk for Autism, which is a fundraiser for research for Autism Spectrum Disorders. The event takes place on Saturday morning, September 25, 2010 at The Phoenix Zoo. This year the focus is on raising funds for a new, multi-treatment research study at ASU for children and adults, including diet, vitamins/minerals, essential fatty acids, amino acids, and more.

We had over 5,000 participants and raised over $250,000 for autism research! Autism is a developmental disability that affects 1 in 100 children, striking them in their first three years of life. It is a lifelong disability with no known cause or cure. Children with autism have major problems such as learning to talk, understanding speech, and making friends. Many children also have major medical problems, including seizures, gut problems, and muscle weakness. Most of them will be unable to work or live on their own, and will need supported living or a group home.

The purpose of the Arizona Zoowalk is to fund research to find effective treatments for autism spectrum disorders, so that children and adults can lead more independent and meaningful lives.

The Arizona Zoowalk is organized by an all-volunteer committee, and 100% of the proceeds of this fundraiser will go to support autism research at Arizona State University and the Autism Research Institute (ARI), which funds research across the US, including Arizona. Established in 1967, ARI is the oldest and one of the largest autism research foundation in the US, and the only one with a four-star (highest) rating on Charity Navigator (www.charitynavigator.org).

Please consider:

- Becoming a sponsor
- Forming a walker team and joining us for a fun day at the Phoenix Zoo with family, friends, and co-workers.

All sponsors at the $1,000.00 level and higher will also receive a free booth at the event.

Sponsors who pledge before June 15, 2010 at the Gold level or higher will be included on the brochure (over 30,000 copies will be distributed).

Further information can be found on our website www.ZooWalk.org

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

James B. Adams, Ph.D.

Director, ASU Autism/Asperger's Research Program

Father of a teenage girl with autism
